

CYNTHIA L. MADISON

Qualifications

Extensive knowledge of the Wyoming Department of Environmental Quality (WDEQ)/Air Quality Division (AQD) permitting program for Oil and Gas Production Facilities. Working knowledge of environmental principles, theories and practices of environmental compliance and regulations for the downstream Oil and Gas production industry. Engineering/scientific and practical background with knowledge of industrial processes, operations and technology, scientific calculations and analysis. Able to conduct complex analysis of problems using data collected through physical measurement and inspection.

Education

- A.S., Engineering, Casper College, 1983
- A.A., Fine Art, Casper College, 1983
- B.S., Petroleum Engineering, University of Wyoming, 1987

Professional Career

Gene R. George & Associates, Inc. 2012-Current Project Engineer & Air Quality Specialist

- Prepare Air Quality Applications for O&G production and development operations.
- Provide regulatory services for O&G production companies.
- Complete annual, biennial, and triennial O&G Production Facilities emission inventories.
- Will prepare Air Quality permit applications for Oilfield Waste Disposal Facilities once the DEQ/AQD permitting guidance for this is finalized.

Wyoming Department of Environmental Quality - Air Quality Division 1996-2012
Principle Engineer; Environmental Specialist, Program Principle & Program Supervisor

- Supervised the statewide O&G Production Facilities permitting program.
- Oversaw preparation of New Source Review Air Quality permits for O&G Production Facilities.
- Worked closely and cooperatively with other WDEQ/AQD permitting groups and with compliance staff.
- Represented the agency in meetings with various State, Federal and private entities.
- Developed and regularly revised the Chapter 6, Section 2 Oil and Gas Production Facilities Permitting Guidance.

Conoco Incorporated 1987-1995
Lease, Maintenance & Production Operator

- Performed daily tasks required to ensure continual and maximum oil production and water injection in various Conoco leases in the Powder River Basin.
- Served in Midland Division in their Sussex, West Sussex, Tisdale and Meadow Creek Fields, Wyoming.